Creative Suite 3 Training

You've invested in software with new capabilities and workflow possibilities. Let the experts from American Graphics Institute show you how to maximize your software investment, saving time and allowing you to create more creative and compelling content.

Creative Suite 3 Experts

AGI instructors have authored five new books on the Adobe Creative Suite 3 as part of the Dynamic Learning series published by O'Reilly, including Dynamic Learning: Photoshop CS3, Dynamic Learning: Flash CS3, Dynamic Learning: Dreamweaver CS3, Dynamic Learning: InDesign CS3, and Dynamic Learning: Illustrator CS3. Each book includes more than one hour of training videos where AGI's instructors guide you through the lessons and exercises. AGI's team of instructors have also authored the Creative Suite 3 for Dummies, as well as an additional two dozen books targeting print, Web, video, and mobile content development.

Unparalleled Experience

AGI's instructors have extensive experience assisting all types of organizations adopt new creative and publishing technology. AGI has assisted thousands of marketing, creative, and editorial teams adopt new software by providing planning, training, and support services.

Trusted by Adobe

Adobe Systems hired AGI's team of experts to help prepare their organization for the Creative Suite 3 launch. AGI's team of experts worked closely with Adobe Systems to produce internal training content so Adobe's entire organization would be ready when the Creative Suite 4 was announced.

Adobe has also hired AGI to develop external training content for their Creative Suite products. AGI instructors have developed the majority of the training content used in Adobe's Classroom in a Book training workbooks for the Creative Suite 3 products. Additionally, AGI has assisted in developing a number of the Adobe product certification exams.
